Entry into this or any Mitakuye Art Contest gives consent to the following agreement and covers all submissions from this date forward in perpetuity:

I hereby state that all work submitted by me is completely original work created by me. I state that no one else has any claim to my work and my submission will not infringe upon any other person or entities copyrights or intellectual property rights. I hereby grant The Mitakuye Foundation full permission to use my artwork on all of it's platforms – digital, print, internet, social media, film, audio, television and any other platforms it engages for the mission of the Foundation. I grant this permission for all time in perpetuity. I make no claim now or at any time in the future for the Foundation's use of my artwork. I maintain all rights and intellectual property of my artwork. I also give the Foundation permission to use my name, voice, and likeness in all stated platforms above to promote my work as an artist and the work of the Foundation. I understand that the prize monies received by me are an honorary award for merit and are in no way payment for the use of my artwork. I understand that while the Mitakuye Foundation supports the sale of my artwork, all artwork submitted for contests can not be sold until after any awards are distributed. I understand that submission of work automatically enrolls me into the Mitakuye Creator's Club.
